NOTE: The Marketplace is not a commercial venue and nothing can be sold. Participating businesses should emphasize service to the community either in conjunction with an agency that the business has supported through the Human Race, or by giving away "freebies" to the public.

YES! We want to reserve a (10x10) space on the blacktop of Herbert Slater Middle School for our booth at the Human Race Marketplace on May 5, 2012. We understand the guide lines listed below. Please note that you must provide your own tables, chairs, tents supplies and clean up your space, PACK IT IN, PACK IT OUT!

GUIDE LINES

Please understand that you must set up your booth on Friday evening, May 4th between 5:00pm & 7:00pm, in order to reserve your space. The Volunteer Center Provides an overnight security guard. On Saturday morning, remaining spaces will be available on a FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE BASIS. You will be billed the following week.

All vehicles must be off the blacktop by 6:30am. Marketplace exhibitors should be "open for business" by 7:00 am and are expected to pack up and load out around 11:00am.
